Louis J. Goffman Award

The Pennsylvania Bar Foundation’s Louis J. Goffman Awards program seeks to recognize and honor an individual and an organization whose commitments to pro bono have enhanced the delivery of legal services to Pennsylvania’s poor or disadvantaged, making a critical difference in the lives of those in need of legal representation. The recipients’ donations of time, talent and expertise serve as a model to be emulated by other legal professionals and organizations and since 1989, the Louis J. Goffman Awards have recognized and rewarded these exceptional people and organizations.

On May 11, 2000, the Pennsylvania Bar Foundation awarded this to:

- ◆ the Cumberland County Bar Association,
- ◆ the Dickinson School of Law of the Pennsylvania State University, and
- ◆ Legal Services, Inc.

for outstanding Pro Bono Service to the community.

2005 Pro Bono Service Award

MidPenn Legal Services presented this to Members of the Cumberland County Bar Association and the Bar Foundation in recognition of their support of MidPenn thru Dues and Participation in the Pro Bono Program.
